

VANE ROAD PRIMARY SCHOOL

WEEKLY ROUND-UP

31st MARCH TO 4th APRIL 2025

Firstly, thank you for your patience this week with our I.T systems. We are now up and running with the new system.

Further changes will take place over the Easter break as we move from SIMS and Parent Pay to Arbor. I will keep you updated as soon as I have further information.

Years 3 and 5 had a wonderful visit to the theatre last Thursday & Friday where they watched a Terrible Tudors production and Amazing Egyptians.

I was so proud to hear their behaviour was impeccable and they were wonderful role models for our school.

On Wednesday 9th April we will be holding our annual Easter egg competition. All entries need to be made at home by the children and brought to the main hall on Monday morning between 8.50am and 9.00am.

Class teachers will judge each year group, and prizes will be given for 1st prize, 2nd prize and two 3rd prizes for each year group.

Good luck to all!

Mrs Cowey has been working with Durham County Council and OASES to educate our children on the importance climate change. On Wednesday children from years 3 – 6 helped to plant 200 trees on our fields.

A big thank you to Mrs Cowey and the team who supported with this.

Have a lovely weekend.
